

IO BEATS DAO — LEGAL DISCLOSURE & RISK STATEMENT v1.0

Official DAO Document · © 2025 IO Beats DAO
Audited by Cyberscope · Powered by Safe · Sablier · Snapshot · TaskOn

1. Purpose of This Document

Defines the legal status, responsibilities, and limitations of participation within IO Beats DAO. It clarifies the non-security, non-custodial, and voluntary nature of the DAO.

2. Legal Nature of IO Beats DAO

IO Beats DAO functions as a decentralized collective governed by smart contracts and executed through multisig wallets. It is not a legal company; operational compliance is supported by IO Beats Foundation.

3. Regulatory Classification

$IOB tokens and NFTs are utility assets, not securities. They grant governance access, DAO participation, and community rewards. No equity or bond rights are conferred.

4. Risk Disclosure Statement

Participation involves risks including volatility, smart-contract bugs, governance uncertainty, regulatory evolution, and operational failures. Users participate at their own risk.

5. Compliance & KYC/AML Statement

IO Beats DAO and IO Beats Foundation adhere to global AML and CTF standards. Fundraising follows KYC verification and audit requirements via Cyberscope and Assure DeFi.

6. Intellectual Property & Licensing

All IO Beats DAO assets (logos, code, brand) are © 2025 IO Beats Foundation. Non-commercial DAO-related reuse permitted with attribution.

7. Limitation of Liability

DAO and Foundation assume no liability for asset losses, exploits, regulatory impacts, or misuse of wallets. Participation is voluntary.

8. Jurisdiction & Dispute Resolution

Legal matters follow DAO-friendly jurisdictions such as the British Virgin Islands (BVI). Disputes resolved by on-chain arbitration before off-chain actions.

9. Updates & Amendments

This Legal Disclosure may be modified via DAO vote. Updates are published on GitHub under /legal/IOB_DAO_LegalDisclosure_vX.X.md.

10. Acknowledgment of Understanding

By interacting with $IOB or IO Beats NFTs, users confirm they understand and accept all legal terms and risks of DAO participation.
